MONDAY, JUNE 2, 1735.

Florence, May 18. N. S.

YESTERDAY an Officer passed by here, dispatched by the Marquis de las Minas, to the Duke de Montemar, to carry him the News, that, on the 14th Instant, a Bomb thrown into the Fort of Monte Philippo, falling into the Magazine of Powder, had blown it up, with a good Number of Soldiers; and that thereupon the Garison wanting Amunition, had that Day surrendered at Discretion to the Spaniards: As this Fort is of the greatest Importance, News is shortly expected of the other Places in Tuscany having also surrendered. Fifty thousand Pistoles are arrived here from Leghorn, for the Use of the Spanish Troops in Lombardy.

Vienna, May, 25. N. S. On the 22d Instant the Prince of Saxe-Hildburghausen, who went into Croatia, to regulate the transporting of Provisions into Italy, returned hither from thence, and the same Day made his Report of the Success of his Commission to his Imperial Majesty: That Prince designs to set out in a few Days to join the Army in Lombardy. The States of the Kingdom of Hungary, who separated at Presburg, have granted the Emperor 300,000 Florins in Money, and 200,000 in Provisions. The last Letters from thence confirm the Excesses and Disorders, which the Vagabonds and Mutineers have committed in that Kingdom. They have, among others, pillaged the great Village of Jula, in the County of Arrat, set Fire to a Place called Teutchen-Stradt, or German City, and intirely ruined the fine Lordship of M. Harrucker, first Commissary of Victualling, situate in the same County. They have carried off near Zolnock 10,000 Florins belonging to an Armenian Merchant, and 5000 of a Grazer's. They have on this Side the Theis forced a little Post, occupied by 30 Imperial Soldiers, from whence they carried off several Quintals of Powder, and some Pieces of Field Cannon. They have also beat a Detachment of the said Troops, who escorted 6000 Florins, upon which they seized. Their Chief is called Peru, who served in the last Rebellion under the late Prince Ragotski, as a Major. To-morrow, the Prince of Furstenberg, the Emperor's principal Commissary at the Dyet of the Empire, sets out for Ratisbon. The 22d the Aulick Council published a new Resolution relating to the Dutchy of Mecklenburg.

Berlin, May 31. N. S. Yesterday the Russian and Danish Ministers had the Honour to dine with the King, who continues to enjoy perfect Health. His Majesty dines To-day at the Field Marshal Count de Fincks. To-morrow the Prince of Anhalt-Deffau is expected here, to assist at the Reviews, which are to commence shortly. Major General Count de Donhoff is very ill. The Baron de Ginckel, Minister of the States General of the United Provinces, was also indisposed for some Days. M. de Podewils is set out for his Estate in Pomerania. We learn from Dantzick, that the Prince Czartoriski, Commander of the Polish Guards, was arrived there from Warlaw.

Paris, June 9. N. S.

Letters from Florence of the 21st of last Month mention, that the Marquis de las Minas had taken Porto-Ercole at Discretion, the Garison of which Place mutined against their Commander; that the Marquis aforesaid having entered that Place with his Troops, had caused eight Germans, the Ringleaders of the Mutiniers, to be hanged, and that having ordered Orbitello to be blocked up, which cannot hold out long, he set out afterwards on his Way to Lombardy.

The 4th Instant the Cardinal de Fleury came to Town, and dined at our Archbishop's; and his Eminency repaired afterwards to the Assembly of the Clergy, of which, it is reported, the King demands twenty Millions of Livres; but how far they are like to comply with that Demand, Time will shew.

The last Letters from Italy of the 26th of last Month import, that the Artillery being arrived in the Allied Camp, the King of Sardinia, who had a fine Army, was the next Day to march against the Enemy, to oblige them to re-pass the Po, and that an Action of Importance was expected.

Hague, June 7. N. S. On the 1st Instant my Lord Harrington went from hence in a Yacht for Utrecht, thence to proceed for Hanover. The Imperial Minister, Count Kinski, and his Brother, as also M. de Lofs the Saxon Minister at the Court of Great Britain, arrived here on Friday last, in the Packet Boat; and this Day set out for Utrecht, from whence they are to proceed for Hanover. M. Hop, Minister from this State, proposes to follow them in a few Days. The Prince and Princess of Orange talk of going to Friesland next Week.
